THE PREZ SEZ

It sure was a wonderful anniversary. Our lovely id official visitors from National Headquarters, Mrs. Geraldine Neuman, President of the Association, and Miss Sue Sharpe, southeastern district
vice president were the highlight of the activities of course. We were privileged to have them with us so that all of you could meet and talk with them personally. Many thanks to ALL who participated in the success of the event under the supervision of chairman, Sue Short.

We have a family picnic to look forward to in July.
Judy Faught will be calling the plans out for us soon.

I call your attention to the fact that Jean Fulkerson has been elected by the chapter to be nominated for the office of southeastern district vice president subject to the approval of the national nominating committee. We are preparing her campaign now and would appreciate the help and assistance of each of you. We are especially in need of "loot". These are the things we give at the convention i.e. combs, rain hats, lighters, pens, anything like this that can be identified with our candidate's slogan. If you can supply any amount of these items for this purpose, please let the campaign manager know.....(that's me).
We want to enthusiastically support Jean...and every member can help in this campaign whether she plans to attend the national convention or not... "Throw Your Hat in the Ring....For Jean!"

We're thinking about Mrs. Ruby Gray, at this time still in the hospital. Room 313-A if you want to send a card. We hope Ruby will soon be able to be up and out with us again.

PREZ SEZ CONT'D

Glad to report the installation of two new members in May. Say Hello to: Mrs. Shirley Towe employed by Golden-Farley; and Miss Marilann Melton employed by the Bowling Green City School System.

I'm cruising in early this edition. As we approach the end of another year, we're no less enthusiastic about future Kentucky Colonel Chapter accomplishments. 'Til next issue then.... (expect to see you at the dinner meeting June 27.)

"ABOUT OUR ANNIVERSARY"

It was a misty, foggy, drizzling Saturday morning June 2, but this did not refrain members of the Kentucky Colonel Chapter from going to the airport to welcome our most gracious and lovely National President, Geraldine Neuman and our own Southeastern District Vice President, Sue Sharpe to our city. Members along with city officials, Mayor Robert Petrie, Judge John Milliken, President and Mr. Harold Huffman, Executive Director of the Bowling Green Chamber of Commerce, bosses, business men, representatives of various civic organizations were present to extend their greetings and take part in a fifteen car motorcade, directed by Eva Sadler, through the downtown section of Bowling Green. Our city police were our official escorts, equipped with sirens, perfect for stopping traffic at all intersections.

The motorcade ended at City Hall where we were invited to Mayor Petrie's office for an official presentation. Mayor Petrie made Gerrie our honorary mayor and proclaimed June 3 as Geraldine Neuman Day in the city. Sue was named as our ambassador.

After leaving City Hall Gerrie and Sue were taken to ABWA headquarters, the home of Jean Fulkerson who was most honored to have them as her guest. (This title was given to Jean's home by our past National President, Pegzy Flanagan when she visited in 1965.) Just a few minutes to freshen up and we were on our way to Holiday Inn for a luncheon. By this time members of the Volunteer Chapter, Nashville, Tennessee, had arrived and were ready to join us.

Following the luncheon we hurried over to Western Kentucky University where Mr. Robert Cochran, Dean of Public Relations, greeted us to a tour of the campus.

"ABOUT OUR ANNIVERSARY CONT'D"

During the tour of Western Kentucky University campus we toured the Kentucky Building, a regional museum, also, we saw the movie "This is Eastern Kentucky University", just recently filmed on the campus.

The tour ended around 5:00 and back to headquarters for a short period of relaxation then on to Manhattan Towers for dinner again joined by members of Volunteer Chapter and Bowling Green Chapter Chapter.

Would you believe that the sun was shining on Sunday morning and everyone was up getting ready to attend church so that we wouldn't be late for the brunch scheduled for 11:00 at Town Towers Restaurant. The group grew larger as members from the Bluegrass and Derby Chapters from Louisville joined us.

Our Anniversary Chairman, Sue Short, informed us that the receiving line would form at 1:45, this meant rushing back to headquarters to freshen up, then on to the Cutliff Building for the Anniversary Party.

The theme for the party was "Something to (now About". During the program Genevieve brought to us a most informative talk about ABMA and Sue directed the Anniversary Ceremony. Following the ceremony our own prez, Joann Rudolph, presented the special awards: Holly Denney - one year perfect attendance; Ann Bays, Gladys Walker, Joann Rudolph two years perfect attendance; Joyce Lewis, Brenda Williams, Lucille Walton, Jean Fulkerson and Linda Sidebottom - three years perfect attendance. Joann also presented charms to Holly Denney our Spring Hand of Friendship Tea Chairman, Nora Bowie our Fall Hand of Friendship Tea Chairman,

ABOUT OUR ANNIVERSARY CONTINUED

Joyce Lewis - Scrapbook and Publicity; Judy Faught - Bridge Tournament Chairman; Ann Bays - Bridge Tournament Hostess and Bloodmobile Chairman; Brenda Williams - Boss Night Chairman; Linda Sidebottom - Program; Sue Short - Anniversary Chairman; Jean Fulkerson - Merit Award.

Joann also presented Gerrie with an engraved Mint Julep cup and Sue with a charm (horse shoes and jockey boots) as a remembrance of their visit to the Kentucky Colonel Chapter's Third Anniversary.

Our own prez, Joann Rudolph, was presented her Woman of the Year Abbey by our National President, Geraldine Neuman.

Following the program refreshments were served and more social with a lot of picture taking, including WLTV. We do appreciate Mr. Holderfield, Brenda and Jean's boss, for taking time out to make movies of the entire event for us.

Also, during the program Brenda Williams and Ann Irby provided us with entertainment of several vocal selections. (We are very proud of you girls and your talent.) An instant thought just occurred to me for a Ways and Means Project "A Talent Show".

All good things come to an end but "Oh the Memories". We as members of the Kentucky Colonel Chapter will cherish this occasion. The warmth of the atmosphere can only promote ABWA. If we could only bottle up this event it would be priceless. (Another Ways and Means Project)!

Sue and Gerrie returned to Louisville with the girls from the Blue Grass Chapter. A busy weekend but another historic event for us!

"The Spirit of New Orleans"

The Spirit of New Orleans was the theme of the Bowling Green Charter Chapter's Boss Night attended by Joann Rudolph, President, Joyce Lewis, Brenda Williams, Sue Short, Nora Bowie, and Jean Fulkerson on June 17.

Sue Sharpe, Southeastern District Vice President was back in town and she presented the highlights of ABWA in a very informative talk.

Mr. Charles Ingram was selected as their 1967 Boss of the Year. Our 1967 Boss of the Year, Mr. William H. Goad was also present along with past bosses of the Kentucky Colonel Chapter, Mr. Richard Ford and Mr. Howard Hagan. Dr. William Jenkins was guest speaker. Dr. Jenkins topic was "A Boss Is A Boss Is A Boss".

It was a very enjoyable evening for the entire group!
